Legislative Background

On 1 July 2013, the 33 Vocational Education Committees (VECs) were dissolved and replaced by 16 Education and Training Boards (ETBs). The ETBs are established under and governed according to the Education and Training Boards Act 2013. Each ETB is a statutory body with its own corporate structure. On Monday, 1 July 2013 Waterford and Wexford ETB was officially established.

Subsequently, on 1 January 2014, the then Minister for Education and Skills, Ruairí Quinn T.D., formally announced the transfer of seven SOLAS Training Centres to the recently established Education and Training Boards. Mission Statement

We endeavor to provide a quality education to all our students in a caring, disciplined and respectful environment. We aim to prepare students for life and responsible citizenship and motivate them towards the achievement of their full potential.

Introduction:

Bunclody Vocational College is a co-educational school delivering educational excellence to the people of Bunclody and its surrounding areas for the past sixty years. The school is committed to high quality education and their mission is based on meeting the needs of all students in their care. An extensive programme of Junior and Leaving Certificate subjects are offered as well as a broad adult education programme.

The low pupil-teacher ratio is one of the many advantages to be gained from attending the school. This allows for small focused classes and all students are encouraged to take as many higher level subjects as possible.

"Celebrating Excellence in Teaching and Learning"

Fiona Dee IT Teacher with learners

Maths Class under the expert tuition of Terry Ryan

In 2014, the VTOS programme celebrates 25 Years in operation this year. Located locally at the Bellefield GAA Complex the programme has delivered excellent programmes for 22 of those 25 years. We have had periods of great change but VTOS has been as perennial as the grass and has kept flowering for the students year after year.

Captions such as 'igniting the flame that burns a lifetime', 'It's never too late for a second chance education' and 'VTOS Spells Success' have been appropriate and will continue to be so.

'A picture paints a thousand words' so it is said so let's read the attached photo, taken at our recent awards ceremony, and see what it says to us...

On the far left we have Fiona Dee, our IT Teacher, who has had the distinction of equipping so many of our students for further studies and employment. Next in line Dr John Doran, who attributes to VTOS, the foundation for his transition from 0 to 10 on the national Framework of Qualifications. To the fore: Mary Walsh AEO of the newly constructed Waterford and Wexford Education and Training Board. VTOS Enniscorthy Co-ordinator, Eithne Agar, next in line. To the right of the photograph: Tony Kynes, has progressed from our hallowed halls to Wexford Carlow IT Campus and has distinguished himself with a Master's Thesis of 60,000 words on the retail sector in Wexford Town. He currently teaches at the Campus and teaches Research Skills at the VTOS Centre. He equally acknowledges that without VTOS he would never have achieved all he has done. Behind the camera: James Quirke, our Media teacher must be credited with bringing a wealth of talent into the Centre. There are also the unseen heroes in this photo who are equally an essential part of Team VTOS Enniscorthy. Terry Ryan, Business Studies; Miriam O Sullivan, Culinary Arts and Social Studies; Geraldine Dunne, Computer Literacy and Learning Support, Hugh Dunne, Woodwork and Mary Barron Occupational First Aid.

Launch of VTOS Book Celebrating 25 Years

The staff and students celebrated the publication of the VTOS 25 Years Commemorative Book titled 'Silver Linings' VTOS 25 Years Transformation Through Education, which was launched by Gerry Griffin National VTOS Co-ordinator at the recent NAVC Conference in Athlone. This was in conjunction with the Photography Exhibition 'Escape the Everyday' which opened at the centre on the same occasion. There was a great atmosphere in the Centre and everyone celebrated with a Magnum Ice Cream! Magnum and Intel also celebrate 25 Years.

Identifiable trends and considerations for the future 2013:

An increasingly younger profile of student has presented challenges which staff have responded to with professional skill, resulting in a high retention rate.

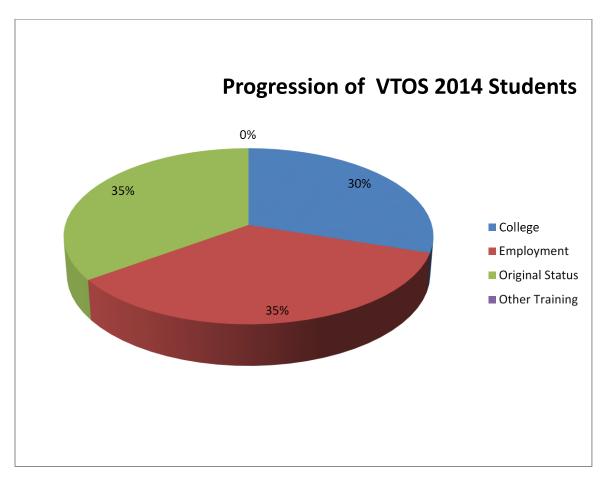

A significant number, over 50% progressed to further education with an increase in the numbers with Leaving Cert standard on entry.

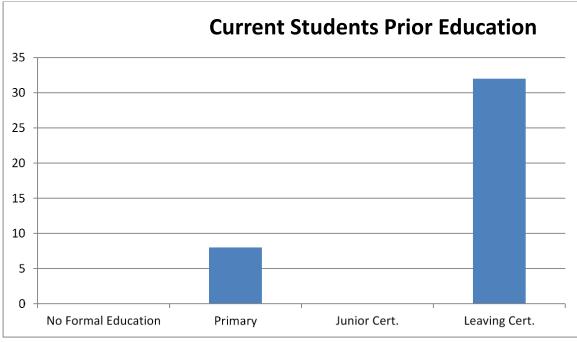

Trends for 2014:

- An increase in progression to employment and of those returning to original status.
- A higher number of those with Leaving Certificate is noteworthy.
