1. Purpose

Waterford and Wexford Education and Training Board (WWETB) is committed to optimising the process of teaching and learning across its FET provision.

2. Scope

This policy statement covers all instances of teaching and learning as they occur within WWETB's FET provision.

3. Definitions

FET

WWETB's further education and training provision.

Teaching

In this document, the term 'teaching' refers to any formal pedagogic activity associated with WWETB's provision of further education and training, this would include but not limited to; teaching, tutoring, instructing, and training.

Learning

In the instance of this document, the term 'learning' refers to the end user's reception, processing and ultimate experience of any formal pedagogic activity associated with WWETB's provision of further education and training with which they have participated in.

4. Policy Statement

Waterford and Wexford Education and Training Board (WWETB) commits to providing high-quality teaching and learning experiences to suit learners with a wide array of abilities and educational goals. WWETB ensures an expressed commitment to accommodating diversity and to upholding equality and inclusion as an underpinning doctrine of its FET provision.

WWETB commits to the provision of learning environments that are fit-for purpose and to the maintenance and continual development of its learning environments as appropriate.

WWETB is committed to being an innovative provider of education and training, responsive to the needs of its learners and the wider society. Supplementary to this is the commitment to provide development and upskilling opportunities for WWETB FET staff.

WWETB commits to being a learning organisation, consulting with key stakeholders regularly, both formally and informally and to use the learning from consultation to develop and refine provision accordingly.

5. Review and Update

This policy statement will be reviewed within two years of approval. The supplementary FET policies, procedures and guides which emanate from this statement will be reviewed as appropriate by the quality assurance oversight body and FET management in turn.
